

Fordham Journal of Corporate & Financial Law

Volume 8, Issue 2

2003

Article 3

An Analysis of the Section 3(a)(10) Exemption Under the Securities Act of 1933 in the Context of the Public Offering Component of Section 3(c)(1) of the Investment Company Act of 1940

Marc F. Holzapfel*

Blogging context @ FamilyCourtMatters.org, post <http://psBXH-5CC> (Jan.2017), user Let's Get Honest (since 2009): National Fatherhood Initiative ("fatherhood.org") shared a street AND suite# in Germantown MD with "Flexible Office Space" offered by global firm "Regus, plc." Exploring their investors site, I found a 6 Dec. 2016 Extraordinary Shareholders meeting (seeking, as I understand it, for Jersey-based "IWG, plc" by way of (global and aggressively expanding since 1974) Investec Bank, plc (also registered in Jersey, but able to trade on the London Stock Exchange AND JSE (Johannesburg, its origin was in S Africa). The IWG (International Workplace Group) 3Nov2016 Prospectus mentioned its Scheme to get up to 1 billion (1,000,000,000) of its Ordinary Shares on the Premium Listing at London Stock Exchange, were NOT registered in U.S. or any of its states, but WERE issued in reliance on this Section 3(a)(10). I am learning about that section's relevance.

Above annotations and post contents (incl. on or about images related to this one from this source)
© 2017 Anna Victoria Englund. I am user |blog administrator "Let's Get Honest" at the above blog.

exact ilnk, shortened: <http://tinyurl.com/FordhamFinCorpLaw2003Holzapfel>