I was a battered women, have been run through the Family Court Gauntlet" and have the information and standing as an individual to talk about the DV Cartel (national coordinated, federally and privately funded) as attempting to international framework for what is, and what is NOT considered criminal acts by men towards women, and/or by family members towards each other, in a Family-Obsessed generation with at least 3 White House Admins' "Father" and "Faith-Based Organization" networking. Controlling DV organizations (fiscally and as to who has a voice) at the STATE level was essential to ensure that domestic violence was "treated" with behavioral modification programmings - for the service providers too — which has set up the professions to distract from personal responsibility at the individual level, and from the conflict of interest with law, at the systems level, this presents.
