The real question here is, "whose $28M?? Was it the private project of the larger community foundation (bd members) such as J. Scott McReynolds & Kathryn E. Merchant, and others, or outsiders working through it? The primary function of THIS organization is to conceal its operations from the general public by functioning without employees, paid (by this org.) Bd. Contributions, or billable program services. ALL it does is distribute grants and pay investment and managerial fees for its original purposes.
