Our Affiliate Organizations

APHSA's nine affiliate organizations are unincorporated entities consisting of individuals engaged in or concerned with policy and practice associated with major fields of public human service endeavors. This may include specific assistance and service programs, e.g., the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (formerly food stamps), child welfare, or general support functions for human services, e.g., information systems, training and development. You may link directly to the web site for each affiliate from the drop-down menu on the APHSA home page. Additionally, APHSA serves as the secretariat for the Association of Administrators of the Interstate Compact on Adoption and Medical Assistance, which is a nonprofit corporation established in 1986 to facilitate the administration of the compact.

American Association of Health and Human Services Attorneys

Provides a forum at national, state, and regional levels for the discussion of legal matters pertaining to the administration of public welfare.

Association of Administrators of the Interstate Compact on the Placement of Children

Besides being an affiliate of APHSA, AAICPC obtains its secretariat services through APHSA. The AAICPC was established in 1974 and consists of member states from all 50 states, the District of Columbia, and the U.S. Virgin Islands. The Interstate Compact on the Placement of Children (ICPC) is not only statutory law in all 52 jurisdictions, it is also a binding contract between all parties. The ICPC establishes uniform legal and administrative procedures governing the interstate placement of children. ICPC is the best means we have to ensure protection and services to children who are placed across state lines. The Secretariat provides ongoing administrative, legal, and technical assistance to individual states that administer the compact. The Secretariat also provides administrative, legal, and technical assistance to the network of ICPC member states for the purpose of resolving problems of mutual concern, and formulating common policies, practices, and goals.

American Association of SNAP Directors

Provides a national forum for discussing policies, laws and regulations at the state and federal levels that affect the administration of SNAP (formerly the Food Stamp Program).

IT Solutions Management for Human Services

Promotes understanding within the field, exchanges technical and design information, and promotes the goals of APHSA.

National Association of Public Child Welfare Administrators

NAPCWA, created in 1983, works to enhance and improve public policy and administration of services for children, youth, and families. As the only organization devoted solely to representing administrators of state and local public child welfare agencies, NAPCWA brings an informed view of the problems facing families today to the formulation of child welfare policy.

National Association for Program Information and Performance Measurement
