(I've marked some familiar (to me) names in blue, those associated with the "Crisis in the Courts Crowd" (my label) as referenced in my blog FamilyCourtMatters.org over the time, in red w/ a few annotations.

EDITOR

This pdf (w/o annotations) may have been posted previously in reference to its publication by Taylor & Francis (registered in England & Wales) Here (May 7, 2018) I am simply pointing out, this field is still "a small world" and people know each other. Yet some topics remain "censored" in public discussions, notably the organization "AFCC" and US DHHS federal grants (fatherhood.gov, etc.) in a 1996ff welfare reform policy climate modeled after the (sexist AND racist) 1965 "Moynihan Report" stating causes of action for a national policy on "The Negro Family") to promote marriage/fatherhood. Scholarly (principally, "matriarchy" as a pathology in our obviously male-led USA) is continue OF that altered reality — "altered" because they do exist!

Don Eisenberg, J.D. - Attorney (Certified Law Specialist) in Private Practice, Long Beach, CA
(one of his former family law (divorce) clients, Scott DeKrai, made news in the area by massacring (shooting) SEVEN people inside and outside a beauty salon, i.e., bystanders (in an assault and attempt to kill his wife) shortly before another custody hearing, I believe the area was Seal Beach. There'd been a history of DV and restraining orders, but, afterwards, Eisenberg (being interviewed) had said he didn't see anything abnormal. The father already had joint custody, but it wasn't enough! (He also had PTSD, which was in some accounts blamed for the massacre.

Kathleen Faller, PhD, ACSW - Director, Family Assessment Clinic, School of Social Work, University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, MI
(Search on my blog (FamilyCourtMatters.org) in connection with Daniel Saunders, whom Barry Goldstein and others (2011ff) so frequently quotes on "scientific evidence" that custody evaluators are biased and ignoring domestic violence issues, Saunders also on this list)
